Nursery Activities and Play

This week we read the story 'The Detective Dog' about a dog that solves the mystery of the missing school books. We learned about what the police do and had fun making magnifying glasses to look for clues.

Our detective skills came in handy when Sarah's cakes went missing from nursery!

We also made our own books and created a library to borrow books from.

Next Week

We will begin our Christmas activities next week. We will work together to decorate the classroom ready for Christmas and begin to learn some Christmas songs.

Our book focus will be:
