Happy Friday!

I hope you've all enjoyed a good week! Year 4 certainly have - I am so happy to see so many of the class engaged and enthusiastic about their learning. I love nothing more than looking up to a sea of enthusiastic hands up in the air, eager to contribute and share - something I am seeing lots of in class. Well done Maple class!

This week, we became scientists, conducting our own experiment exploring how matter can change states between a solid, liquid and gas.

In art, we brought our research of portrait artists together to create an inspired piece of work using a variety of mediums.

In maths, the children continue to use their knowledge of place value to help inform their greater understanding of numbers up to 10,000.

Wishing you all a restful weekend.

Some of our art work!
