Happy Friday!

I hope you all enjoyed the half term break and managed to recharge the batteries a little!?

We've hit the ground running in Maple class, starting new topics across lots of subjects.

We are now using the Viking Sagas to inspire our English writing. This ties in nicely with what we are learning about in history this term - The Vikings.

In maths this week, our focus has been 'area' (the total space taken up by a 2D shape or shape of an object).

Sound is our new science topic for the term and we embarked on a sound walk around the school, measuring the level of noise in various spots.

We managed to dodge the rain to enjoy an hour of tag-rugby during our PE lesson, developing our ball handling skills.

In art, we have continued our unit of work on 'portraits', reflecting on how artists convey emotion through various techniques.
