

Year 2

Learning Letter

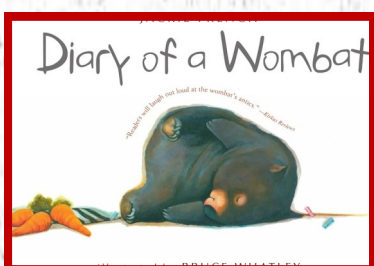

Ongar Place School, Addlestone, Surrey 01932 842785

Friday 23rd February

What a wonderful first week back, despite it being very wet and drizzly. Thank you to everyone who attended parents evening to discuss all of the wonderful things that the class have been doing. Hopefully you found it beneficial. Please ensure any questionnaires are completed and returned to the office. We have also been lucky enough to have a student teacher, Miss Wootton, join us to complete her final teaching placement.

Diary of a Wombat

This week we have started a new class book. The children had great fun discovering the antics of the Wombat, it made some interesting conversation about how different animals would write if they were able to keep a written diary.

We have jumped into the shoes of our own animal and have been busy writing diaries as if we were different animals.

We have started to read our diary entries aloud and will upload all diary entries to Seesaw for you to enjoy at home.

History Homework

Rowan class have once again amazed me with their wonderful effort in their homework.

This week I have given the children the opportunity to present their work to the class.

They have been very well presented, well spoken and have researched a wonderful array of facts.

Sully

For excellent library research about bears for this week's secret mission.
