Happy Friday!

This week, children have spent time learning how to find missing lengths of rectilinear shapes and then calculating their perimeter. Can you challenge your child to tell you the properties of a rectilinear shape?

In English this week, children have written three scenes of a play script based on the book Tar Beach. We then acted out some of the children's work in class to see our work in action!

We finished our Power Prints unit in Art this week with a collaborative printing session! Using various materials, children used their work from this term as inspiration for a final group piece, printing onto fabric.

In science, we learnt more about the role switches play in a circuit and had a go at making one ourselves. We will be using these in our DT project next term.

In history, we reflected on why the Mayan civilisation disappeared. We considered the reasons put forward by historians and archaeologists and reached our own conclusion as to which of these seemed the most likely.

We finished the term with a dodgeball tournament in PE this week! It was great to see all the children taking part and using throwing, dodging, ducking and catching to score points for their team!

I wish you all a peaceful half term break and look forward to seeing many of you at the parents evenings when we return.

Miss Hale
