Happy Friday!

I hope you all enjoyed the half term break. We're finally seeing signs of Spring outside which I, for one, am grateful for! It was lovely to see so many of you at Parents' Evening this week.

We have started our new book in English this week - The Matchbox Diary. We have revisited the rules of how we write speech and also revisited when to use 'a' and 'an' in our work.

In maths, we have started our unit on fractions - looking at the whole and how we can partition this into mixed numbers.

We will be Embracing Our Zen in PE this term as we have started our unit on Yoga. This week we learnt some poses and focused on our breathing as we made our way through a flow.

Wishing you all a peaceful weekend,

Miss Hale
