BREAK THE RULES DAY

Welcome back!
I hope you all had a restful half term. How lovely it has been to come back with lighter mornings and even our first glimpse of the warm sun.

Today we had a great time breaking the rules!

We are still waiting for a few children to bring in pillow cases for our sewing project.

World Book Week

Next week we will be celebrating reading for the whole week! Although we will not be dressing up, we wanted to share with you the activities that the children will be taking part in. An email was sent out earlier in the week for full information.

Book fair- The book fair will be running every day after school.

'DEAR' sessions- points in the day when we drop everything and read!

Guest readers- We would like to invite parents or family members in to share a story. Let me know if you would like to come in.
