

YEAR 6 LEARNING NEWS

Highlights of the Week

For 13 children this week, the highlight has definitely been Bikeability. You can read more about this in Headlines, but I am really pleased to say that the Bikeability tutors were really impressed with the behaviour of all the pupils who participated and I know the children really enjoyed their time, as well as learning a great deal about how to stay safe on the roads and how to ensure their bike is roadworthy.

As almost half the class were involved with this, we had a carousel of activities each morning meaning that meant every pupil felt the week was a bit special. Every child did English and Maths each day and then other activities gave additional English and Maths support, in a fun way, to those children who stayed in school for the duration. As adults, it was also really nice to focus on a small group at a time.

Science

Following on from the work in previous lessons - looking at the role of the digestive system, circulatory system and muscular system in the body - this week we planned and carried out an experiment into how exercise affects heartrate. See if your children can remember the difference between an independent variable, a dependent variable and the control variables.

PE

On Mondays, the class have been working on gymnastics skills with their PE coach. I walked through the hall a few times this week and it was wonderful to see their paired balances and the children working well to support one-another.

On Fridays, we have not just been playing Dodgeball, but thinking about key skills (throwing, catching and dodging) as well as strategies. It was very interesting having secret VIPs last week who could get a whole team out via one catch!
