Focus Learning

Last week, we were lucky enough to celebrate European day of Languages and we decided to study Italy. We started off the morning learning a traditional folk dance called 'Tarantella' which included upbeat music and tambourines.

Next, we looked at what people eat in Italy. Consequently, we turned into chefs and completed our 'pizza parlour fraction' orders. We needed to put the correct topics onto the right fraction of the pizza.

Finally, we had a research task about Italy. We used the Ipads to create our own posters.

In Literacy, we have continued to unpick our class book. This week we have concentrated on characters feelings and how they might change or develop throughout. The children created their own emotion graphs and tried acting out one of their favourite parts in the book.

Pink table were working hard with Mrs Slater. We have been using multilink to help us visualise doubling and halving numbers up to double 20.

Star learner

Our Star Learner this week is Mia for ensuring her work is always presentable inside all of her working books. Well done!
